Indicative timetable for election of judges to the European Court of Human Rights

Time needed for a state to organize an open call for candidatures and to transmit a list of three candidates to the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe	3 months
Time needed by the Assembly for its election procedures (including interviews with all candidates)	3 months (this time may be longer, depending on the scheduling of the Assembly's part-sessions)
Time provided to newly-elect judge to terminate his or her previous employment and settle in Strasbourg (if Protocol n. 14 of the Convention is not yet in force, the sitting judge – who may not have been re-elected – would need time to find other employment and/or to return to his or her home country)	6 months
Total time needed for the proceeding	12 months
